

Helpdesk Ticket Summaries

BY BENG REN SIEW

Overview

The dataset is a collection of helpdesk tickets that displays problems/incidents and request for software and IT. The primary goal is to provide timely solutions to the problem for each ticket

Summaries

This Record Count is indicating the total number of tickets within the dataset.

Record Count

536

Summaries

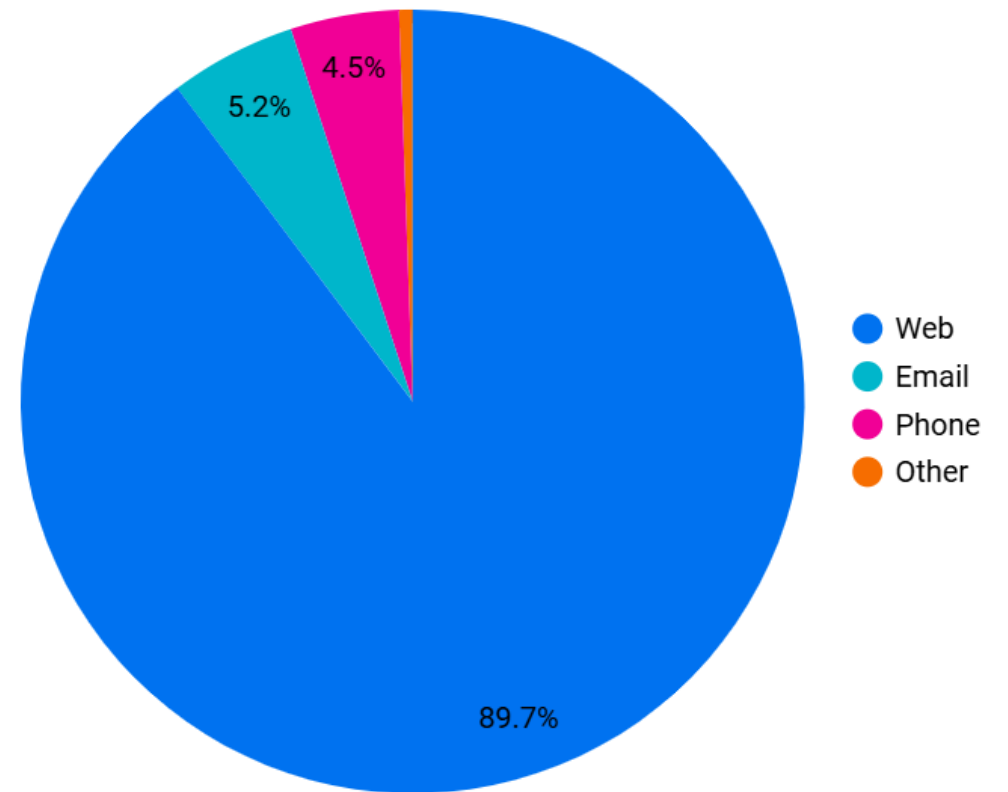

This Pie Chart indicates the percentages of the source of where the tickets come from.

89.7% of tickets come from the Web which is equivalent to 481 tickets

Email – 5.2% → 28 tickets

Phone – 4.5% → 24 tickets

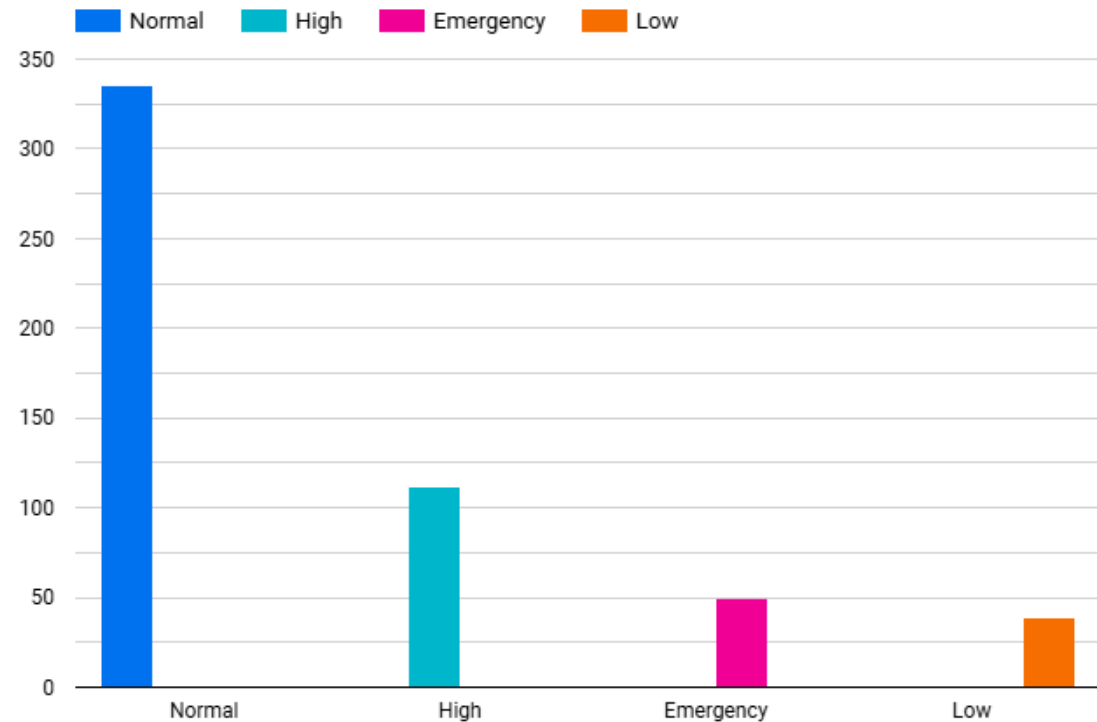

Other – 0.6% → 3 tickets

Summaries

The graph displays the total number tickets for each different priority within the dataset.

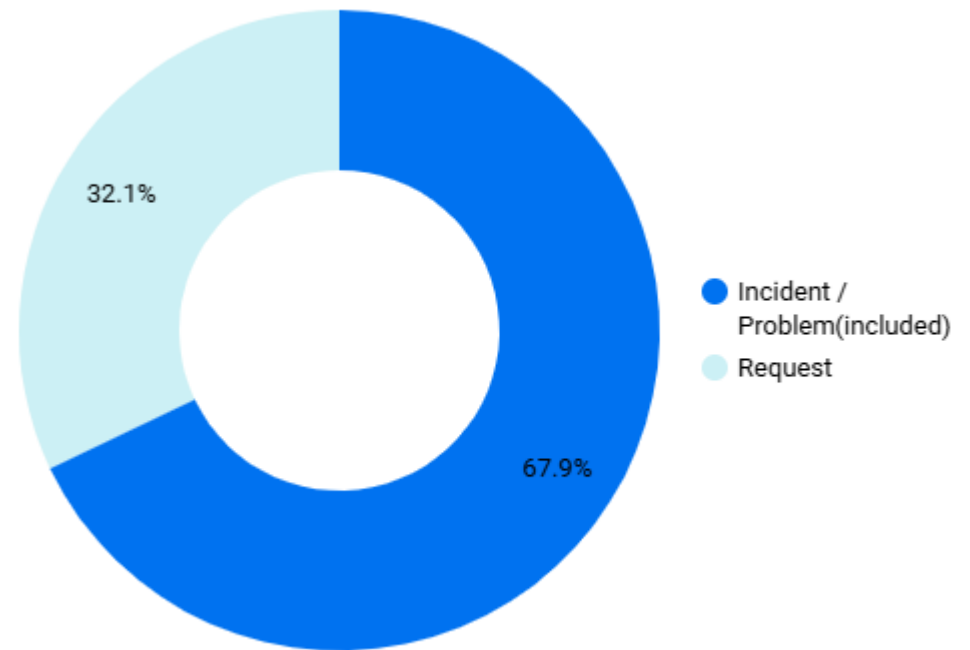

This graphs indicates that a majority of tickets fall under normal priority.

Summaries

This shows the percentage of the type of tickets in the dataset. They are either:

- Incidents/Problems → 364
- Requests → 172

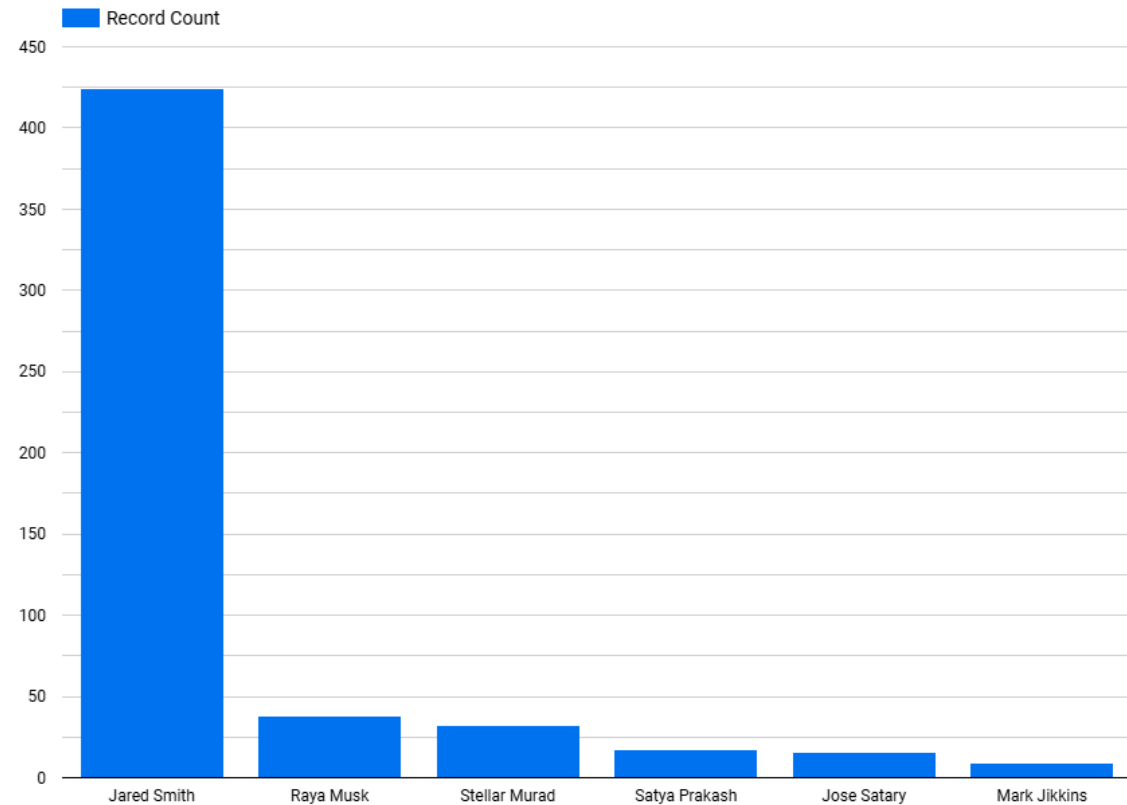

Summaries

The graph shows the total amount of tickets each individual in the Helpdesk team has undertaken in the dataset

- Jared Smith → 424
- Raya Musk → 38
- Stellar Murad → 32
- Satya Prakash → 17
- Jose Satary → 16
- Mark Jikkins → 9

This graph provides an indication on the progress and workload of each individual within the helpdesk team.

Summaries

This pie chart provides the percentage of closed, open and resolved tickets at the given instance of the dataset (Current Status).

Closed – 462

Open – 61

Resolved – 13

A resolved ticket is when the support agent has addressed the ticket, but may require user confirmation or follow-up hence not fully closed.

